To the crackhead or crackheads who stole my little spotted dachshund and peed on my lawnmower: This is the kind of treatment up with which I will not put. If I catch you near my house again, I will go Comanche on you. Stay the blank off 8th street. This is all the warning you get, and since y'all crackheads don't read the paper, I'm sure it will be a surprise.

Puppy for Sale - weeny type with spots. Must sell immediately for $20. You can see him over on 7th Street. I don't have a phone, so bring one with you.

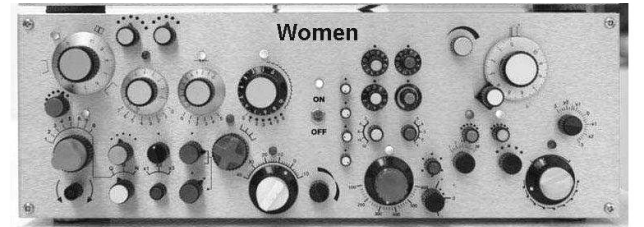

Hello Sunny San Leon and Wake Up!

Ignorance is running rampant in Sunny San Leon. You're ignorant. My friends are ignorant. I'm ignorant.. We're all ignorant. Say it, "I'm ignorant". The more I tell myself, "I'm ignorant", the more I start to grin. Then I get to laughing. Something about being ignorant, just makes me feel good all over. I bask in ignorance. I'm thinking about selling t-shirts, "I'm Ignorant". Or, a t-shirt for all you ladies, "I'm with Ignorant". If you think about it, there's a lot of money to be made from ignorance. That's why we call plumbers and electricians.

The first time I called a man ignorant, I almost lost two good front teeth. Hoping to avoid replication of that life experience, let me explain my reasoning. Count on one hand all the things in this world of which you are not ignorant, and then on the other hand start to count all the things of which you are ignorant. Once you get tired of counting on the ignorant hand, then you can readily see why you are ignorant. It's mans natural state of being. Some more than others.

The more I get comfortable with being ignorant, the more relaxed I have become in life. I don't have to answer difficult questions like, which came first, the chicken or the egg? What exactly is Einstein's theory of relativity? Where's God? Why does the Nile River flow northward? What's out there beyond them stars and galaxies? Why aren't the fish biting? Confessing your ignorance is downright therapeutic. Why did Billy Bob dump me? How come Ole Yeller had to die? Why didn't Mama love me? Ignorance is good for the soul. Spiritually, Saul or St. Paul, firmly advocated the benefits of ignorance in I Corinthians, by stating "let a man become a fool, that he may be wise" and "hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world". One good thing about being ignorant, is that everything is educational. However, once you get educated you just wind up at square one. Ask any expert. Be it a doctor or fishing guide "The more you know, the less you know". It's a truism.

Ignorance is especially in vogue this year. It's a Presidential election year. Answers exist to every malady facing mankind. It's comforting to us ignorant folk to know that someone has all the answers. We don't have to think. I guess the first Presidential candidate who can explain why flushed toilet water circles in an opposite direction below the equator, than above the equator, has my vote. That person is a walking Genius. So, if you see me on the street, just say "I'm Ignorant", and then, and only then, can we began to have an honest and intelligent discussion. Plus, I got a t-shirt I'll sell you. Business should be brisk. Dwane Caldwell
